Granite countertops and a dramatic multi-tone stone tile backsplash add warmth and texture, while the oversized island provides generous prep space and a natural gathering spot for guests. The open-concept living and dining area is anchored by a striking stone gas fireplace with a natural wood mantle — the ideal focal point for apres-ski evenings in. A large-format window frames a captivating view of the surrounding rooftops and snow-dusted peaks beyond, flooding the space with natural light throughout the day. Retreat to the lavish master suite, featuring an ensuite bath and a generous walk-in closet, providing the ultimate sanctuary after a long day. Additional highlights include: Outside your door, the Spring Creek community continues to evolve as one of Canmore's premier destinations.
